DAILY BULLETIN

Tuesday, May 29, 2018: AM & PM

Day 177 Of 181

TODAY'S DAILY CTE FUN FACT: From our Electrical Construction Instructor, Mr. Eagleson: Benjamin Harrison, the 23rd president of the United States, was the first president to have electricity in the White House, but he never touched any light switches. He was too afraid of getting electrocuted.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Seniors: Your last day of classes at your sending high school is also your last day of class at Steel Center. If you like or upon request of your instructors, you may still report to Steel Center, after that date.
- Steel Center's last day of classes for underclassmen and some seniors is Monday, June 4. Students are to report to Steel Center through that date, unless your sending school district does not provide transportation.
- (PM ONLY) EF students will be dismissed at 1:52 p.m., today. Buses will leave Steel Center promptly at 1:55 p.m. An announcement will be made at 1:52 p.m. to dismiss you.
- (AM ONLY) Faculty are reminded of the following due dates:
  - 4th quarter graders and incomplete requests are due Monday, June 4.
  - GCN professional development modules are to be completed by Wednesday, June 6.
  - The end-of-year checklists are due to Dr. Frioni by Wednesday, June 6.

HAVE A GREAT DAY, STEEL CENTER!
