

Program of Study (POS): Building Trades

Classification of Instructional Program (CIP): 46.0401

Topic	Information	Resources
Classroom tests	Quizzes given when necessary; tests administered at the end of chapters. (usually 5 per period)	RCA Construction Textbooks NCCER Core Curriculum Textbook
Midterm and/or final exams	NOCTI: State assessment test for 12 th grade students who are eligible concentrators.	www.nocti.org
Industry certification tests and costs ²	Career Safe OSHA 10 (free) Pennsylvania Builders Association (free) Ladder Safety Training (free)	Careersafeonline.com www.pabuilders.org laddersafetytraining.org
Number of books	Multiple: Residential Construction Academy books will be provided throughout course.	http://solutions.cengage.com/Residential-Construction-Academy
Direct instruction (%)	25%	Theory Room, projector, whiteboard, Etc.
Cooperative education	Available to those who qualify, typically 12 th graders in their second or third years whose attendance, conduct, and grades are above average.	Work Based Learning Mrs. Stacey Caudill 412.469.3200, x 2542
Homework	Periodically for all students or differentiated for remediation and enrichment purposes.
Task list	Program of study task grid for CIP 46.010	www.education.pa.gov (Search CIP POS task list)
Prerequisites	Completion of grade level 9; grades of “C” or better in academic subjects; strong interest in building trades.
Reading levels	End of 9 th grade level
Math levels	End of 9 th grade level
Program requirements and related costs (required and optional)	Required uniform: Work boots (steel toes not required), Approx. $40-$70 Clean natural fiber pants or 12oz. denim Approx. $20 Clean T-shirt (no sleeveless shirts). Approx. $20
Dual enrollment	Not at this time.
Articulation agreements	Community College of Allegheny Commonwealth Technical Institute	PDE: www.education.pa.gov (search “SOAR”)
Essential aptitudes and skills	Strong math, problem-solving, and trouble-shooting skills are essential to this POS. Students must be able to work as part of a team, climb ladders, lift moderately heavy objects, maintain tight grips on high torque power tools, work at ground level and overhead, communicate effectively with others to ensure safety, and read schematics accurately.
Work environment	Danger of electrical shock, rotary power tools: therefore, no jewelry may be worn while working in the shop; dusty; some chemicals; inclement weather conditions (hot/cold, warm/dry, wet/muddy indoors and outdoors)	OSHA/BT shop rules

1. Detailed information may be provided upon acceptance to this program.