

Program of Study (POS): Medical Professions (MP)

Classification of Instructional Program (CIP): 51.9999

Topic	Information	Resources
Classroom tests	Quizzes and end-of-unit tests weekly	Textbook; notes; study guides
Midterm and/or final exams	Midterm and Final Exam each level NOCTI written and performance assessments for 12 th graders, who are eligible CTE program completers	www.nocti.org
Industry certification tests and costs	Students who meet all of the criteria may test for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Phlebotomy $125 (test prep material $69) • Pharmacy Tech $125 (test prep material $74) • CPR: $10 	www.nhanow.com www.Americanheartassociation.org
Number of books	Not issued to students – class sets: 1 st Level: Simmers DHO Health Science 9 th Edition 2 nd Level: McCall Phlebotomy Essentials 7 th Edition 3 rd Level: Pharmacy Technician	www.cengagelearning.com www.jblearning.com
Direct Instruction (%)	70% Theory. Class focus is mainly on Reading/notetaking/studying/written assignments
Cooperative education	Available to those who qualify – typically 2 nd and 3 rd year 12 th graders, who consistently excel in all aspects of the program	Stacy Caudill, Work-based Learning Coordinator: 412-469-3200, x2542
Homework	Periodically for all students or differentiated for remediation/enrichment purposes; make-up work
Task list	PDE task list for CIP 51.9999	www.education.pa.gov
Prerequisites	Proficiently completing Algebra 1 and high school English; completion of 9 th grade
Reading levels	End of 9 th grade (1 st level); end of 10 th grade (2 nd & 3 rd levels)
Math levels	Algebra 1 proficiently completed (2 nd & 3 rd levels) Proficient Math skills essential for pharmacy technician cert.
Program requirements and related costs (required and optional)	Required uniform: Medical Scrubs with white or black non-skid shoes (price varies); Optional , but necessary for certifications: Phlebotomy / Pharm Tech ($125.00) and CPR ($10)	www.steelcentertech.com Health Assistants homepage
Dual enrollment	CCAC	Mr. Shannon Hinkle: Counselor: 412-469-3200, x2517
Articulation agreements	Mt. Aloysius College Harrisburg Area Community College CCAC	PDE: www.education.pa.gov (search SOAR); Mr. Shannon Hinkle, School Counselor:
Essential aptitudes and skills	Ability to work effectively with people; strong communication skills; critical thinking skills; strong math and reading skills; professionalism; ability to follow verbal & written instructions
Work environment	Offsite training may include laboratory and outpatient settings with use of practical tasks learned Cognitively and physically demanding. (may stand for extended periods of time)	Medical Professions rules, as outlined in the program syllabus: www.steelcentertech.com

* More detailed information may be provided upon acceptance to this program.