

Program of Study (POS): Sports Medicine & Rehabilitation Professions
Classification of Instructional Program (CIP): 51.2604

Topic	Information	Resources
Classroom tests	Quizzes and Unit Exams	Lectures, notes, textbooks, student fill in powerpoints and guided notes
Midterm and/or final exams	NOCTI written and performance assessments for 12th graders, who are eligible CTE program completers. Midterms and Final Exams will be given each year.	www.nocti.org in class material
Industry certification tests and costs*	Available to students who qualify: NASM CPT Course: $180.00 NASM CPT Exam: $200.00 CPR & First Aid Cert.: $20.00 Others TBD	www.nasm.org
Number of books	Books Provided By Steel Center
Direct instruction (%)	70% theory – 30% hands-on lab exercises
Cooperative education	Available to students who qualify, typically individuals in their 3 rd year and in grade 12. This is challenging due to healthcare facilities mandating 18 years of age along with all vaccines. The CPT exam has been added to supplement this experience.	Mrs. Stacey Caudill, Work-based Learning Coordinator 412.469.3200, x2542
Homework	Time in class is given to students for most assignments. If not finished in class then the assignment becomes homework.	Canvas
Task list	Program of study task list for CIP 51.2604	PDE: www.education.pa.gov (search CIP POS task lists)
Prerequisites	Algebra 1 recommended Completion of grade 9
Reading levels	End of grade 9
Math levels	End of grade 9
Program requirements and related costs	Program uniform required: Minimum $29.00 for top and performance bottoms
Dual enrollment	None at this time	Mr. S. Hinkle, School Counselor: 412.469.3200, x2517
Articulation agreements	Waynesburg University Duquesne University More TBD
Essential aptitudes and skills	Ability to work with others, strong communication skills, strong critical thinking skills, strong reading skills, professionalism
Work environment	Working directly with others. On feet for long periods of time. Working with latex gloves and other substances that may cause allergic reactions.	MSDS located in classroom

* More detailed information may be provided upon acceptance to this program.